

Birthday Bash

In the story Nonny is excited about being able to have a birthday party for her 13th birthday.

Surprised that her mother is allowing her to have a party, Nonny begins to make big plans for the party. But the day of the party disaster strikes, and because of it Nonny feels horrible. In the end Nonny prevails and things end up working in her favor.

Activity Lesson: Writing- Think of a time when like Nonny, you were excited about an event, and something happened that ended your excitement. Write a short story telling about your experience. Do not forget to include in your story how things worked out in the end.

