

PLANE JANE

In the story Jane goes on an adventure in her airplane. She flies her plane to Washington D.C. to participate in the Capital Bee. Throughout the story and at the Capital Bee Jane correctly spelled a lot of words. At the end of the story Jane's grandmother informs her that she won the Capital Bee. Jane is a smart little girl with a bright future ahead of her.

Lesson Activity: How many words can you spell? The following are words from the story. Study the definition of each word and then write a sentence using the word after learning its meaning. Have fun with family and friends by challenging one another to a spelling bee by spelling words from the story. Answers will vary.

Soar- To fly or rise high in the air. (v) verb.

Echo- A sound caused by the reflection of sound waves from a surface back to the listener. (n) noun.

Bayou- A marshy outlet of a lake or river in the southern part of the United States. (n) noun.

Cyclopropane- A flammable gaseous synthetic compound whose molecule contains a ring of three carbon atoms. (n) noun.

Magnanimous- Generous or forgiving, in particular toward a rival or less powerful person. (adj.) adjective.