

I CAN BE

In the story, Penny Parker dreams of becoming anyone she chooses when she grows up. Her career choices range from becoming a teacher to President of the United States. Because Penny is intelligent, talented, and determined, her career dreams can come true. What are your career goals? What do you want to become when you grow up?

Activity Lesson: Writing- Create a “Dream Career” Journal. In the story Penny came up with 13 different career goals. See if you can come up with at least 13 career goals for yourself. When you write out your goals, what you will need to do to achieve each goal. You can do it, because just like Penny, you are intelligent, determined, and destined for greatness.
